The Graduate Student Mentor Award

First presented in 2015, the Graduate Student Mentor Awards recognizes the hard work, dedication, devotion and desire of graduate students to help undergraduate students succeed. The Graduate Student Council greatly appreciates the contagious enthusiasm, professionalism, and motivation that our peers give undergraduate students. All undergraduate students, graduate students and faculty members at Arkansas State University – Jonesboro are invited to show their support to graduate students that they feel deserve special recognition for exemplary performance.

Definition of a Mentor: A graduate student who exemplifies a deep commitment to fostering the professional and personal development of undergraduate students. They have invested in the potential of students and went beyond the general assistant role.

Selection Committee Criteria:

- Contributes to undergraduate student development by encouraging the development of individual talent through advising graduate level research and promoting professional development opportunities beyond the classroom.
- Assists in promoting successful transition from undergraduate studies to graduate students or professional employment.
- Sponsors students and their work in and beyond the campus community, including supporting student attendance and participation at conferences.
- Acted as an advocate and leader in administrative and professional matters, such as publishing, grant writing, presentation of research findings, and job placement.
- Demonstrates respect, a sincere and active interest in the well-being of the undergraduate students.
